

NCTSN External Resources Domestic Violence Awareness Month (October 2020)

In recognition of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, the National Child Traumatic Stress Network (NCTSN) is offering resources to help educate parents caregivers, families, educators, professionals, and policy makers about domestic violence and its impact on children and families. Every year millions of children are exposed to domestic violence. Domestic violence incidents affect every person within a home and can have long-lasting negative effects on children's emotional well-being, and social and academic functioning. The following resources provide information on the impact of domestic violence on children, families, and their communities.

For Educators

Child Welfare Information Gateway

- Domestic Violence, Child Welfare, and the School System
Provides resources on how the school system identifies, responds, and provides support to children, youth, and families exposed to domestic violence and offers support to parents and caregivers who may be victims of domestic violence.

U.S. Department of Education

- Teen Dating Violence In The United States \(2013\)
Fact sheet explain what teen dating violence is, how it affects schools, and what schools can do to address teen dating violence

Stalking Resource Center – The National Center for Victims of Crime

Promotes awareness, action, and advocacy to enhance victim safety and hold stalking offenders accountable.

For Judicial Personnel

Center for Court Innovation

- Domestic Violence Benchbooks: A Guide to Court Intervention \(2015\)
Reviews themes and best practices captured in similar guides around the country.
- [National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges
Decision-Making in Custody Cases Involving Domestic Violence: A Review of the Literature \(2016\)](#)
Summarized results of empirical research studies on decision-making in custody cases involving domestic violence.

For Parents

Childhood Violent Trauma Center

Works “to reduce the impact of violence on children and families and increasing public awareness of the effects of violence on children, families, communities and society.” Offers training and support for professionals, access to partners in national collaborations promoting best practices, links to other domestic violence and abuse websites, and more.

Child Witness to Violence Project

- For Parents and Caregivers
Provides information to help parents understand the effect of violence on children and provides information on how to support children exposed to violence.

Futures Without Violence

- How To Talk To Teens About Dating Violence
Provides multiple resources about how to talk to teens about healthy relationships, dating violence, friendship, and bullying

Promising Futures Resources for Families

Provides information on when and where to seek help as well as ways parents can support their children.

That's Not Cool.Com

Provides digital abuse prevention resources for youth and families on forming and sustaining healthy relationships with peers and romantic partners.

Stalking Resource Center – The National Center for Victims of Crime

Serves victims of any crime in the United States. Whether by chat or phone, our specialists assist victims in locating appropriate national, local, or online referrals.

Technology Safety- National Network to End Domestic Violence

Discusses technology, privacy, and safety in the context of intimate partner violence, sexual assault, and violence against women.

National Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Offers information for survivors of domestic violence and their children, and agencies that work with them. Works to end violence against women and children through coalition building, support for battered women and children through alternative programs such as safe homes and shelters, public awareness education and technical assistance, developing policies and innovative legislation, and much more.

For Policy Makers

DC Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Focuses on legislative and judicial activity impacting domestic violence and related issues including tracking and analyzing. Educates policy makers, conducts outreach and public awareness campaigns, advocates for funding, develops materials, offers technical assistance and training, and provides information on national legislation and amendments, and more.

National Network to End Domestic Violence

Works at a national policy level to help domestic violence victims and their advocates. The Network is a social-change organization composed of state domestic violence coalitions, allied organizations, and supportive individuals.

For Victim Services Professionals

Academy on Violence and Abuse

Expands health education and research to integrate knowledge about violence and abuse into the training of all health professionals to promote safe families, safe workplaces and safe communities.

Child Welfare Information Gateway

- Domestic Violence and the Child Welfare System \(2014\)
Discusses the extent of the overlap between domestic violence and child welfare, some of the effects of domestic violence on child witnesses, and the trend toward a more collaborative, communitywide response to the issue. It also features promising practices from States and local communities.

Domestic Violence Awareness Project

Provides information on the history of Domestic Violence Awareness Month and offers suggestions on how your organization can be part of the campaign to stop domestic violence.

Futures Without Violence

Works globally to prevent and end violence against women and children including domestic and dating violence, child abuse, and sexual assault.

The National Center on Domestic Violence Trauma & Mental Health

Provides training, support, and consultation to advocates, mental health and substance abuse providers, legal professionals, and policymakers as they work to improve agency and systems-level responses to survivors and their children.

National Indigenous Women's Resource Center

Provides national leadership in ending gender-based violence in tribal communities by lifting up the collective voices of grassroots advocates and offering culturally grounded resources, technical assistance and training, and policy development to strengthen tribal sovereignty.

National Latin@ Network

Builds bridges and connections among research, practice, and policy to advance effective responses to eliminate domestic violence and to promote healthy relationships with Latin@ families and communities.

National Resource Center on Domestic Violence

Provides comprehensive information for those wanting to educate themselves and help others on issues related to domestic violence.

Stalking Resource Center – The National Center for Victims of Crime

Serves victims of any crime in the United States. Whether by chat or phone, our specialists assist victims in locating appropriate national, local, or online referrals.

Technology Safety- National Network to End Domestic Violence

Discusses technology, privacy, and safety in the context of intimate partner violence, sexual assault, and violence against women.

Ujima: The National Center on Violence Against Women in the Black Community

Engages in research, public awareness, community engagement, and resource development to mobilize the community to respond to and end domestic, sexual and community violence in the Black community.

For Youth

Amaze

Provides resources for parents, young children, and teens focused on many aspects of healthy relationships including intimate partner violence

Break the Cycle

Works to provide comprehensive dating abuse prevention programs exclusively to young people.

Youth.gov

- Dating Violence Prevention

Provides resources which explain who is at risk for teen violence and resources for teens involved in an abusive relationship.

Love is Respect

Provides teens and young adults with information on how to prevent, recognize, and escape unhealthy relationships.

Trevor Project

Provides teens and young adults helpful resources to explore the topic of healthy relationships.

For Parents and Youth

Mobile Safety Apps

Caution Apps may not be safe to use on mobile devices that are being monitored by a current or former intimate partner.

- Respect Effect
Android
iTunes
- bSafe
- Circle of 6
- One Love My Plan
- Tech Safety