Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior among school-aged children that involves a real or perceived power imbalance.

The behavior is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (US Department of Health & Human Services).

1 in 5 high school students are bullied in the US.

That's 8.2 Million every year!